Editorial Board Disclosures
The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest for AAP CME Activities is designed to ensure quality, objectivity, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the conclusion of those in a position to influence and control CME content.

All individuals in a position to influence and control the content of the AAP CME activities are required to disclose to the AAP and subsequently to learners that the individual either has no relevant financial relationships or financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling, or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients.

Each of the editorial board members, reviewers, question writers, and staff has disclosed, if applicable, that the CME content he/she/they writes may include discussion/reference to generic pharmaceuticals, off-label pharmaceutical use, investigational therapies, brand names, and manufacturers.

None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, or staff has any relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) that aid in producing, marketing, reselling, or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients.
