NeoReviews™ Editorial Board Disclosures

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest for AAP CME Activities is designed to ensure quality, objective, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the confirmation of service of those in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by or used on patients.

All individuals in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities are required to disclose to the AAP and subsequently to learners that the individual either

1. has financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial products and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in the CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by or used on patients,

2. is a member of or is employed by an organization that has a current financial interest in the technology or drug,

3. is a member of the editorial board of a journal that editorially supports a company,

4. has a significant financial interest in an organization that has a current financial interest in the technology or drug,

5. has relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial products and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in the CME activities.

All financial relationships must be disclosed to the AAP at the time of submission of the manuscript. The AAP requires that all financial relationships be disclosed to learners.

None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, or staff has any relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial products and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by or used on patients.

None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, or staff has any relevant financial relationships to disclose unless noted below. The AAP has taken steps to resolve any potential conflicts of interest.
