The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships for Authors and Reviewers of Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles is designed to ensure quality, objectivity, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the confirmation of service in those of whose position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities are required to disclose to the AAP and subsequently to learners that the individual(s) has no relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed, or used, on patients. Each of the editorial board members, reviewers, question writers, and staff has disclosed, if applicable, that the CME content he/she/it or others may include discussions/references to generic pharmaceuticals, offlabel pharmaceutical use, investigational therapies, brand names, and manufacturers.

None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, or staff has any relevant financial relationships to disclose unless noted below. The AAP has taken steps to resolve any potential conflicts of interest.
