NeoReviews™ Editorial Board Disclosures
The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest for AAP CME Activities is designed to ensure quality, objective, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the confirmation of service of those in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. Each of the editorial board members, reviewers, question writers, and staff has disclosed, if applicable, that the CME content he/she edits/writes/reviews may include discussion/reference to generic, pharmaceutical, off-label pharmaceutical use, investigational drugs, brand names, and manufacturers.

None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, or staff has any relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any products or materials discussed. None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, or staff has any relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in NeoReviews™. All activities, speakers, presentations, and abstracts have been peer-reviewed by the editorial board and are free from commercial bias. Recommendations in NeoReviews™ are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the American Academy of Pediatrics or its Committees. Recommendations in this publication do not represent an exclusive course of treatment or serve as a standard of medical care. Subscriptions to NeoReviews™ are offered to AAP members and nonmembers.
